

BY THE
Lord Lieutenant General,
AND
General Governour of Ireland.
A PROCLAMATION.

---

SYDNEY.

His Most Excellent Majesty having, for divers Weighty Reasons, thought fit to signifie His Royal Pleasure unto Us, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, now Prorogued unto the Sixth Day of June next, be by Us further Continued by Prorogation from that Day, until the Fifth Day of September next following: We do hereby Publish and Declare, That the said Parliament Be, and It is hereby Prorogued accordingly until the said Fifth Day of September next. Whereof We give this Notice, to the end that the Members of either House of Parliament may not think Themselves Obliged to Attend upon the said Sixth Day of June next.

Given at Their Majesties Castle of Dublin, the Seventeenth Day of May, 1693, in the Fifth Year of Their Majesties Reign.

By His Excellencies Command.

C. VVich.

GOD Save the KING and QUEEN.
